

Temporary Suspension of reader services at the archives of the CSSSC

All reader services at the archives of the CSSSC will remain suspended from 2nd May 2016 till 17th June 2016 for relocation of archival materials from the Patuli campus to the Jadunath Bhavan Museum cum Resource Centre. However, during the suspension of reading services at the reading room scholars may consult most of the textual materials from the open access archives hosted on CrossAsia and on eap.bl.uk, though visual materials and some of the textual documents cannot be accessed online. Inconvenience is deeply regretted.
